TUI Airways Touches Down in Melbourne

TUI (“too-ee”), the UK’s largest tour provider, has officially arrived on the Space Coast as the first transatlantic carrier for the Melbourne Orlando International Airport (MLB).

The inaugural flight landed on March 22, 2022, and the Space Coast Office of Tourism is excited to welcome guests flying in from 8 regional UK airports. TUI is projecting 2 to 3 flights per day with 16 flights per week, bringing in 135,000 tourists this year. A typical Florida stay will last 10-14 days.

Recently relocated from Sanford airport to Melbourne, TUI’s operations could bring millions of dollars to the area, and Mears is handling numerous ground transportation transfers for TUI. “Many of these guests are excited to return to an Orlando vacation,” says Peter Cranis, Space Coast Office of Tourism Executive Director.

Each TUI flight will carry 300 to 345 passengers from the United Kingdom to Melbourne. TUI's other markets are London Gatwick, Glasgow, Birmingham, Bristol, Doncaster and Newcastle.

In addition, TUI’s Marella Cruises will homeport a ship at Port Canaveral starting in 2023, encouraging a land stay for TUI’s cruising clientele.
